Ride the Octoberfest Locomotive

Good Morning Douglas is an informal continental breakfast for those who like to start the action early from 7:30am on the corner of Depot and Main. The Douglas Historical Society serves coffee, doughnuts, muffins and homemade baked goods in the morning at the EN Jenckes Store leading us into the official start of the Octoberfest.. Music begins at 8:00am on the EN Jenckes Balcony.

Doghouse Flowers

Doghouse Flowers play a tasteful blend of Americana: from funky folk'n country/blues to swamped out rock. "Doghouse Flowers play your favorite songs you haven't necessarily heard yet." EN Jenckes Store Balcony 8:00am.

Boston's The Points North have been creating cold and beautiful northern folk music with an octave mandolin, Irish flute, drums and two voices since winter 2008. In 2009 they released their first LP 'I Saw Across The Sound,' which the Boston Globe called "somber and joyous, sturdy and delicate...a folk feast fashioned by the campfire and drawn from hearth-warmed living rooms. A tapestry of piano, mandolin, and wintry atmospheres." 12:15pm Stage B

Garage Sale Picasso: Indie Pop band from the Blackstone Valley featuring Douglas personalities Keith (guitar) & John Menard (bass) as well as Judith Bingham (vocals), Ethan Cruze (drums), and Jason Macierowski (guitar). 2:30pm Stage B

Mark Mandeville & Raianne Richards

Known primarily for their collaboration in the conceptually based folk trio "The Accident That Led Me To The World," Mark Mandeville and Raianne Richards now set forth to promote their new respective solo releases out on Nobody's Favorite Records. As performers, Mandeville and Richards choose to cooperatively present their material as a duo - in the tradition of folk and country music, they share close vocal harmonies and strictly acoustic accompaniment (6-string guitar, ukulele, banjo, tin whistle, harmonica). 9:30am Stage A

The Island Castaways Band

A four piece tropical rock band focused on playing much of Jimmy Buffett's favorite songs with other artists sprinkled in. The band has enjoyed success playing through out New England and recently has been requested to play in Key West, Florida as well as the 2011 New England Parrot Head conference in Windsor, CT. Their original single "This Island" is currently being played on tropical rock radio stations nationwide. The band is comprised of Paul Kane (Vocals, Guitar), Joe Holewa (Bass), Scott Ciprari (Drums), and Ed Glod (Keyboard/Vocals). For contact information call 508-740-7147 or email maitai@islandcastawaysband.com 2:15PM Stage A

Jon Short

Armed with a suitcase kick-drum, National Reso-phonic Guitar, Lowebox cigar-box reso-hillharp, Reso-Ukulele and kazoo, Big Jon Short's high energy solo performances bring a foot-stomping show that taps into the heart of the songs, regional styles, and folklore of the Blues and its importance to American music. 1:15 Stage B

Directed by Diane Pollard of Uxbridge, the BVCC is a Community Chorus in the true spirit of the word; musically enriching the community whenever possible. The BVCC will be opening the Main Stage at 9:00am with an Armed Forces Medley. The Medley showcases anthems from each branch of service and finishes with a moving rendition of the National Anthem. 9:00am Stage A

As an all original band, Angel Road performs with a healthy, family friendly, spirit filled message through their easy listening progressive pop music. Each song contains memorable lyrics along with bright tempo that is appealing to the wide audience. 11:15am Stage A

The songs of Whalebone Farmhouse cover the emotional checklist of gospel, blues, folk as well as originals. Rocky and Keri's music is an exercise in contrasts and they have been known to bring the blues to their music from different trajectories. 10:15 Stage A

The Giant Yes plays funk and soul jazz in the spirit of Jimmy Smith, Grant Green and The Meters. Armed with a Hammond organ and drums and with a variety of musicians such as trumpet, guitar, bass, trombone and saxophone they create music that makes you move. www.thegiantyes.com 1:00pm Stage A

Todd Migliacci - Magican Throw out any preconceived ideas you have of a typical magician because Todd puts on a different kind of show. With over an hour of entertainment, he fuses his impressive array of magic tricks and illusions with juggling and comedy. 10:30am & 11:30am Stage B
