The Cannibal Ramblers are the result of two musical outsiders, Kyle Anderson and Mark Milloff fortuitously coming together. The chaos of their combined and disparate interests resulted in what has been described as Death Delta, Punk and country Blues being dragged by a runaway train. Milloff lived in the woods of Western Massachusetts for nearly twenty years. He was born in Miami and raised in South Florida during the 50's and 60's. He's been devoted to the Delta Blues since the age of 13. Anderson, a Rhode Island native with strong ties to Minnesota, grew up listening to 70's Punk Rock. He's devoted to Doom, Punk and a broad range of musical interests, which he incorporates into his playing. 3:00pm Stage-A

Drewby Carey

Cool acoustic tunes classic and new, along with cuts from the first CD "Into The Dream" and new music from the album "Deja Drew". www.drewbycarey.com
9:00am Stage-A

If We Go At All's debut EP, Authentic Mexican Silence, is a collection of indie rock songs that covers both ends of the spectrum. From mysterious and melancholy to straightforward and upbeat, the Milford-based group takes chances on its first outing – and it pays off with gleams of shimmering light. 2:30am Stage-B

www.facebook.com/mattfraza/

are clearly inheritors of a timeless legacy, creating music that is both original and evocative of a rich tradition. Blending distinctive voices and a wide range of accompaniment (guitar, harmonica, ukulele, clarinet, penny whistle, electric bass), their songs have been well-received by audiences around the eastern United States since 2010. www.markmandeville.com 12:00pm Stage-A

Kenzie Kirby

I'm Kenzie, and I've been playing guitar for 4 years. Ever since I began playing, my life has completely changed; I've met people with the same interests as me, my confidence has been boosted, and my future looks as if it will be filled with musical performance. 1:00pm Stage-C

The Lincoln Tunnel

Comprised of former members of Maria Monk, Garage Sale Picasso, and The Benedictions, The Lincoln Tunnel takes their cue from the likes of The Replacements, Wilco, The Flaming Lips, and Modest Mouse. 1:30pm Stage-B www.facebook.com/thelincolntunnel/

The Blackstone Valley Music Rock Band is comprised of students of the BVM Band Camp Program, now led exclusively by Uxbridge High School graduate Vito Caccavelli, and including long time members Joseph Monahan and James Briand. 10:30am Stage-B

The Vagabonds specialize in German Music, from the old-time Favorites to the new. Their repertoire also includes other songs from all over the world, including Irish, Italian, and Latin-American music. Of course, they also deliver plenty of American tunes from the past 50 years. 12:00-4:00pm Beer Garden

The Brit Wits

The Brit Wits are a four piece band that covers songs from the British Invasion from the Beatles to the Zombies, Herman's Hermits, the Kinks, the Stones, and the Dave Clark Five to mention a few. They bring the drive, energy and humor of the early 60's. 1:00-2:45pm Stage-A www.facebook.com/BritWits

The Brian James Quartet

The Brian James Quartet is a fusion jazz band from the Providence, RI area. They have played primarily throughout the Rhode Island area and are ready to bring their rock-infused jazz to a broader area. Their high energy music incorporates elements of jazz, rock, funk, R&B, and fusion; the energy of the music is infectious and will reach all audiences. The group plays a combination of original compositions and covers by Billy Cobham, Stanton Moore, even Hendrix and Zeppelin. 12:30pm Stage B www.brianjamesquartet.com

Selena Wilson Reich and Joe Cicero, two seasoned musicians who bring their love of music-making to live performances throughout New England. 11:30am Stage-C
